Company Description: DeKalb County Television, DCTV (Comcast Channel 23) provides an avenue for County government to directly speak to the more than 700,000 citizens in the county. DCTV allows residents to see first-hand accounts of what their local government does each and every day to make sure life in DeKalb is increasingly safer, economically sound and the quality of life improved.

Qualifications: DCTV is interested in bringing in an unpaid intern for academic credit. The program is available to a student with a major or concentration in a field of Journalism, Broadcasting, Production, English, Communications, Theater, or Writing. The intern should be interested in developing an active knowledge of the process of getting a full slate of County-related programming to air.

Position Description: Must be able to work eight to 20 hours per week. Duties may include, but are not limited to the following: Help in preparing Audio-Visual presentations, studio operations and working with reporters and videographers on gathering stories. This is an ideal position for a quick learner who is detail oriented and can handle him or herself well in a fast-paced environment.
